Spiritual "To Do List"
(things God has shown me today)

Enter to Worship. Depart to Serve.

Those of us who attended the 2012 Outreach and Bus Convention this past week were well-rewarded for our trip. Here are some comments from the Middleburgh people who were there:

"What was the Outreach and Bus Convention like? Positive, contagious, challenging, motivating."

"The programs were well-organized and well-presented. The workshops were led by knowledgable people who were experienced in their topics, and the church facility was well-suited for a convention of this type."

"The classes were so informative as well as anointed that I am motivated to make greater efforts in outreach for winning souls, by letter or phone, and earnest prayer. A highlight for me was the Twenty-fifth Anniversary celebration , with maybe as many as five hundred people singing heartily. I also enjoyed making connections with old friends."

"It was great to mingle with so many people from other holiness groups. I took away some encouraging thoughts on what might be possible in our own church and community. "

"There was a great spirit in the evening services; the singing and messages were blessed, and there was a sense of unity, as of one big family, among those who attended. The testimonies of those who had been saved from deep sin were encouraging. The musical presentations of the PVBI students added to the spirituality of the convention.The day sessions were helpful, and inspiring not to become discouraged, or give up."

This is the third Sunday in Lent. May we worship so that the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable to our God. Warm greetings to every worshiper!

OPENING

The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
—Psalm 19:7-11
