

*Give unto the LORD, O you mighty ones, Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name; Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
The voice of the LORD is louder than the waters; The God of glory thunders;
The voice of the LORD is powerful; The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.
The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; And in His temple everyone speaks of His glory.
The LORD sits as King forever.
The LORD will give strength to His people; The LORD will bless His people with peace.*

Welcome! We have met together this morning to glorify God. As members of the family of God, let us worship Him in the beauty of His holiness.

God reigns

When we deliberate, God reigns; when we decide wisely, God reigns; when we decide foolishly, God reigns; when we serve God in humble loyalty, God reigns; when we serve God self-assertively, God reigns; when we rebel and seek to withhold our service, God reigns - the Alpha and the Omega, which is, and which was and which is to come, the Almighty.

- William Temple at the Lamberth Conference, 1930

God's peace

A minister, [Dr.] J. Ellsworth Kalas, once told of a terrifying childhood experience. He was 4 years old and was in the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. The caregivers thought it was best for him to spend the first night in the hospital. Thinking little Ellsworth would be well taken care of, his father and mother went to their hotel room for the night. Alone in a strange setting, the child was quickly overwhelmed by fear and loneliness. His wailing and profuse tears compelled the nurse in charge to telephone the parents. Here is how Dr. Kalas describes what happened when his father came for him:

"I remember his dressing me there in the darkness. I remember especially those funny garters which children used to wear. My father fumbled in clipping them on. Then, I remember getting on a street car, and sitting way at the back of the car as we rode to the hotel. He held me very close to him, his long, ungainly arm wrapped around me. And the little boy who had been so frightened was now at peace."

Dr. Kalas went on to say that we all have those times when the odds are too great for us to handle. Sometimes there is a threat to health or finances or family stability and sometimes we cannot describe the problem we have, but we are troubled nevertheless.

Finally, he said, "How good, then, to draw deeply on the resources of God! In Him, there is a peace which is greater than the trouble. How good, indeed, to burrow into a place of security, and to feel an arm wrapping strong about us and to know that it is the arm of our Heavenly Father."
