It was at 11 a.m on November 11, 1918, that the bugles blew the cease fire that signaled the end of the first world war. This was a day of rejoicing and a time of hope for peace.

While we in this country went back to our daily work, to enjoy our lives and make the most of the years granted to us in this world, the people of other lands were suffering from poverty and the despair brought upon by economic hardship. This intensified the struggle for existence until war again became almost inevitable.

A second world war was fought and this was followed by military action in Korea and later Vietnam and the Persian Gulf. The hope for peace heralded by the World War I armistice still appears dim in the distance. For this reason the holiday known as Armistice Day has been changed to Veterans Day so that all veterans of recent wars, including World War I, may be remembered and honored.

Welcome, one and all, to this time of worship. We are blessed to have you with us today.

Call to Worship

Let us exalt our God and King, and praise his name forever and ever.

Great is the Lord! He is most worthy of praise!

No one can measure his greatness.

Let each generation tell another of his mighty acts; let them proclaim his power.

We will ponder and speak of his majestic, glorious splendor and his wonderful miracles.

—From Psalm 145
