

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm. With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

Psalm 98:4 - 9

In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, we are pleased to welcome you. May we all experience the love of God and extend friendship toward one another.

THANK YOU to everyone who contributed to the Christmas Child Shoeboxes. 14 people gathered Friday at Bunnie Bates's to sort and pack the boxes, and then enjoyed a time of fellowship. They will be dedicated in this morning's service.

Contributions for missionary Christmas gifts may be put in the Missionary Fund box. This is the first year for our new missionaries in Brazil. We would like to give a generous gift to them, as well as the other missionaries we support.

There is an old hymn that used to be sung in our sanctuaries much more than it is today. Entitled "Take Time to Be Holy," its theme is that a person who would be whole and wholesome in life has to take time to be alone with the Lord. There have to be intimate interludes with Christ in which he can convey his life and character to us. It takes time for the special little gifts his gracious Spirit sees fit to bestow upon us in the common rounds of our daily lives. Like shells upon the sand, they may not always be obvious. They may not be so large we just stumble over them. It may take time and effort and thought to find them. But it can become a habit for us to be constantly on the lookout for bits of divine loveliness and natural beauty all about. There is such a thing as God's child learning to look for the exquisite touch of his Father's hand and heart in the world around him.

—W. Phillip Keller

The dear Lord's best interpreters
Are humble human souls;
The gospel of a life like His
Is more than books or scrolls.

From scheme and creed the light goes out,
The saintly fact survives;
The blessed Master none can doubt,
Revealed in holy lives.

— John Greenleaf Whittier
