

I'm Thankful For:

Anne Frank's choice

During the Holocaust, Anne Frank, a German-Jewish girl, and her family hid in a secret place in a home in Amsterdam. They were caught and sent to a concentration camp where Anne died of an illness at 15.

Her diary, which details her activities, thoughts and hardships during the months of hiding, is a classic work. It shows that Anne was a positive thinker who did not focus on the misery she faced, but on what she called "the glory that remains."

She wrote: "Think of the beauty that again and again discharges itself within and without you, and be happy." Thinking of Anne Frank's words this Thanksgiving, perhaps we can be reminded of the God-given beauty in our own lives — the joyous gifts of our families and friends, the abundant bounties of nature, and the very breath we breathe.

No matter what has knocked us to our knees in the past or is weighing heavily upon us now, we can remember that God's love and power are still available to us in the final victory. Anne Frank made the right choices and so can we.

Thanksgiving Sunday

Welcome to worship remembering that “He who brings thanksgiving as his sacrifice honors God.” Let us be grateful, therefore, for all the goodness and grace of God bestowed upon us daily. “Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and pay your vows to the Most High” (Psalm 50:14).

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: God, Creator of the universe, You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with corn, for so you have ordained it.

C: You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.

L: You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance. The grasslands of the desert overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness.

C: The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with corn; they shout for joy and sing.

(Psalm 65:9-13)

Pastor: Lord, we come to this service to give thanks to Thee for the many gifts to us. We acknowledge Thee as the giver of all gifts, not only those which feed and clothe our bodies but also those which bring extra joy and richness into our lives. We thank Thee most of all for the joy of Christian fellowship and for Thy provision for us to worship again in our own church building; we ask Thee to bless us as we meet here together this day. Amen.
