THE way to think of God so as to know Him, is to think of Christ. Then we see Him, and can understand how tender and merciful and good He is. We see that if He sends us sorrows and difficulties, He only sends them because they are the true blessings, the things that are truly good. He would have us like Himself, with a happiness like His own, and nothing below it; and so as His own happiness is in taking sorrow and infirmity, and ever assisting, and giving and sacrificing Himself, He gives us sorrows too, and weaknesses, which are not the evils that we think them, but are what we should be most happy in, if we were perfect and had knowledge like Him. So there is a use and a service in all we bear, in all we do, which we do not know, but which He knows, and which in Christ He shows to us. It is a use for others, a hidden use, but one which makes all our life rich, and that richest which is most like Christ's.

—James Hinton

Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and powers before him fall;
The God shines gracious through the man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all.

—Isaac Watts

GOD ... has shone
in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Amazing Grace

John Newton, 1725-1807

Early American Melody

1. A - maz - ing grace! how sweet the sound! That saved a wretch like me!
 2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears re-lieved.
 3. Thro' man-y dan - gers, toils, and snares I have al - read - y come.
 4. When we've been there ten thou-sand years, Bright, shining as the sun,

I once was lost, but now am found; Was blind, but now I see.
 How pre - cious did that grace ap - pear The hour I first be-lieved!
 'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
 We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first be - gun.
