Sermon Text
Subject
Spiritual "To Do List" (things God has shown me today)

"Real true faith is [human] weakness leaning on God's strength."
—D.L. Moody

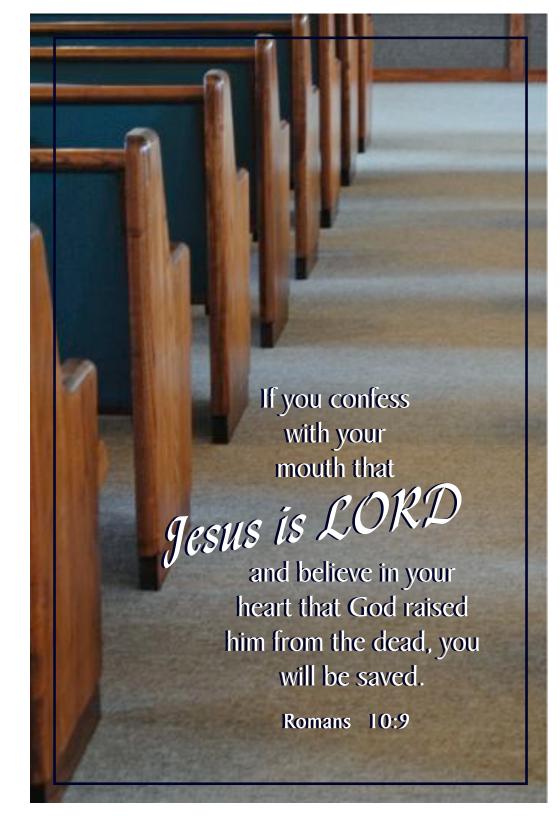

Leap of faith

A house was burning down. The whole family was able to escape the roaring flames, except for one child. He was trapped on the second story of the house. His father, standing on the ground below the window, called out to his son, "Jump, and I'll catch you!" "I can't," the son replied. "I can't see you for all the smoke." "Don't worry," the father answered, "I can see you." —Illustrations

- Faith is believing what you do not see; the reward of faith is to see what you believe.
- —St. Augustine

Concerning Christ's temptation, observe, that directly after he was declared to be the Son of God, and the Saviour of the world, he was tempted; great privileges, and special tokens of Divine favour, will not secure any from being tempted. But if the Holy Spirit witness to our being adopted as children of God, that will answer all the suggestions of the evil spirit. Christ was directed to the combat. If we presume upon our own strength, and tempt the devil to tempt us, we provoke God to leave us to ourselves. Others are tempted, when drawn aside of their own lust, and enticed, Jas 1:14; but our Lord Jesus had no corrupt nature, therefore he was tempted only by the devil. In the temptation of Christ it appears that our enemy is subtle, spiteful, and very daring; but he can be resisted. It is a comfort to us that Christ suffered, being tempted; for thus it appears that our temptations, if not yielded to, are not sins, they are afflictions only.
