On this Lord's Day, we welcome all who have come. As we gather to worship, let us reach out in love and fellowship toward God and one another.

*The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.*
Romans 10:8-13

Inspiration & Illumination

A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

Proverbs 25:11

Public worship occurs when the people of God assemble for the express purpose of giving to the Lord the glory due His name and enjoying the joy of His promised special presence with His own people.

— J. Ligon Duncan

An infinite God can give all of Himself to each of His children. He does not distribute Himself that each may have a part, but to each one He gives all of Himself as fully as if there were no others.

—A. W. Tozer

Worrying is carrying tomorrow's load with today's strength – carrying two days at once. It is moving into tomorrow ahead of time.

Worrying does not empty tomorrow of its sorrow – it empties today of its strength.

GOD...is the Supreme Planner. What is God planning for today? His greatest plans are not how to coordinate things on earth. His greatest plans are for the wonderful future. Everything that is related to our world today is temporary; eternity's plans are forever.

— Wesley Duewel

Lord Jesus Christ, oh may I grow
In knowledge and in grace;
Grant that in me, while here below,
Thy likeness all may trace.
