Come, let us join together with sincere hearts and receptive minds to worship our loving Creator. As we open ourselves to the sunshine of God's presence, we will receive blessings only God can give. Welcome!

Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

I Chronicles 29:10-13

John Ruskin, (1819-1900) was an English author and teacher at Oxford University. There is a memorial to Ruskin on the shores of Derwentwater in the Lake District. Under a Celtic Cross on the memorial are the following words: The Spirit of God is around you in the air you breathe. His glory is in the light you see, and in the fruitfulness of the earth and the joy of his creation. He has written for you day by day his revelation and he has granted you day by day your daily bread.

—The Friendship Book of Francis Gay

Holy God, we praise thy Name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy scepter claim,
all in heaven above adore thee;
infinite thy vast domain,
everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
angel choirs above are raising,
cherubim and seraphim,
in unceasing chorus praising;
fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.

Lo! the apostolic train
join the sacred Name to hallow;
prophets swell the loud refrain,
and the white robed martyrs follow;
and from morn to set of sun,
through the Church the song goes on.

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name thee;
while in essence only One,
undivided God we claim thee;
and adoring bend the knee,
while we own the mystery.

Ignaz Franz, translated by Clarence Augustus Walworth
