Fifth Sunday in Lent

Welcome to all worshipers! Let us sing praises to God and proclaim the mighty works God has done. May we be aware of God's presence among us and declare our love for him. Heart to heart, hand touching hand, join in approaching the throne of grace together.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Hebrews 9:11-15

PASTOR: Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

CONGREGATION: Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

PASTOR: For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

CONGREGATION: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

PASTOR: And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament,

PASTOR & CONGREGATION : That by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

And can it be that I should gain
 an interest in the Savior's blood!
 Died he for me? who caused his pain!
 For me? who him to death pursued?
 Amazing love! How can it be that thou, my God, shouldst die for me?

He left his Father's throne above
 (so free, so infinite his grace!),
 emptied himself of all but love,
 and bled for Adam's helpless race.
 'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
 for O my God, it found out me!

'Tis mystery all: th' Immortal dies!
 Who can explore his strange design?
 In vain the firstborn seraph tries to sound the depths of love divine.
 'Tis mercy all! Let earth adore;
 let angel minds inquire no more.
