

THIS is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. I Peter 2:19-25

We welcome you heartily in the name of Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd!
We are one flock of his worldwide fold. He is the Good Shepherd, who gave his life for his sheep - for you and for me.

The Good Shepherd wants to be intimate with you. He wants you to learn his quiet whisperings. He wants to disclose himself to you. Jesus wants to manifest his life fully to those who follow him, and pour out his very life through them. And how do we qualify for this privilege? Simply by making ourselves available to him in childlike faith. God certainly uses [people] trained in theological wisdom and those with communication and leadership skills, but he also uses very ordinary people who trust in a covenant-keeping God and take his word as truth.
