

Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. Galatians 3:26-29

Welcome to everyone, especially to all fathers on this Father's Day. What blessings our families have given to us! What a blessing our church family is to us! Reach out in fellowship to as many as possible. We are God's children!

Being of the male gender does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero, disciplinarian, a friend, someone to look up to, someone to model ... someone with a touch of the “mother” in him, someone who is big enough to say, “The fault was mine” ... someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, “I, too, shall follow him!”

—Dr. Alton Kaul

Studies show that if the mother of a family attends worship, there’s a 16 percent chance that the rest of the family will also attend.

Yet when a father attends worship, there’s a 93 percent chance that other family members will be present, too.

Just think, Dad, of the clout you have. Hope to see you in church regularly!

What do I owe my father? Everything. He was my best friend: a parent who knew how to be patient with an unruly child; a preacher of joyful faith who practiced what he taught; a good companion in the woods and in the library; a fearless man with a kind heart; a Christian without pretense or bigotry; a true American gentleman of the democratic type. Every day I give thanks for him.

-Henry Van Dyke

A boy and his father were walking along a road when they came across a large stone. The boy said to his father, “Do you think if I use all my strength, I can move this rock?”

His father answered, “If you use all your strength, I am sure you can do it.” The boy began to push the rock. Exerting himself as much as he could, he pushed and pushed. The rock did not move. Discouraged, he said to his father, “You were wrong; I can't do it.”

The father placed his arm around the boy's shoulder and said, “No, son, you didn't use all your strength - you didn't ask me to help.”

In the same way, our Heavenly Father is waiting for us to ask for His help with our problems.
