Now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Ephesians 2:13-22

How good it is to worship the Lord! We encourage everyone to extend the warm hand of Christian fellowship to one another. May we sense Christ's presence among us as we open our spirits to him.

Fear. Ever met this beast? Sure you have. It creeps into your mind by a dozen different doors. Fear of failure ... of heights ... of crowds ... of disease ... of rejection ... of unemployment ... of what others are saying about you ... of moving away ... of being alone ... of death. Fear, fear, fear.

Lurking in the shadows around every imaginable corner, it threatens to poison your inner peace and outward poise. David's 27th Psalm, however is known to contain an unusually effective antitoxin.

The Lord is my light and my salvation — whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life — of whom shall I be afraid?

For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

Hear my voice when I call, O Lord; be merciful to me and answer me.

My heart says of you, "Seek his face!"

Your face, Lord, I will seek.

Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.
