Spiritual "To Do List" (things God has shown me today) Enter to Worship. Depart to Serve.

"If we are to glorify God throughout all ages and world without end, if there is to be glory in the church forevermore, let there be glory in this church, this day, as we lift our hearts and minds in praise and adoration of our great God and focus our thoughts upon His ability—on the divine ability to do all things beyond all things. "Unto Him that is able to do all things."

...Do you ever come to God in prayer and petition, and then go away supposing that you have been presumptuous in asking too much? Ours is a great God—a God who is able to do all things! He worketh His will among the armies of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth. He stretches forth His arm and there is none that can stay it or say unto Him, "What doeth Thou?" Is there anything too hard for Jehovah? Thou doeth according to Thy will, O Lord. Oh, that God would lift up our hearts and minds to adore and to receive and to appropriate that power that God can give us.

...Perhaps you are still burdened with the guilt of your sin...You know that you are a sinner. You are outside of Jesus Christ. Come to Him and ask Him for pardon. Ah, He can do exceeding abundantly above all that you would ask or think. ...Ask Him to cleanse you. Ah, He will cleanse you with the blood of His own Son and make you whiter than snow.

...Oh, that we could get a greater vision of our great God who says, "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not" (Jeremiah 33:3). He is able to do above and beyond anything that we have ever thought or asked. Whatever your problem, whatever your need, God is able..." —from a sermon by Dr. D. James Kennedy

To worship is to stop and reflect upon the majesty and love of God and to praise the One who created us all. Worship also enables us to take time to consider how God would have us act on behalf of the Kingdom of God. A warm welcome to one and all.

Call to Worship

Let us worship the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I pray that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

We seek that Christ may dwell in our hearts by faith; that being rooted and grounded in love, we may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

May the love of Christ, which passes knowledge, fill you with all the fulness of God.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, Unto him be glory.

Glory to God in Christ! Glory down all the generations! Glory to God in the church!

Glory through all eternity!

And all the people say,

Amen!

— Ephesians 3:14-21
