I...beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

*There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.*

*But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;*

*For the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.*

-Ephesians 4:1-7, 11,12, 16

Welcome to the worship and fellowship of God's Church. May this time together in God's presence lift your spirit, engender hope and fill everyone's heart with love.

Dear God, let me live by faith:
Not faith in myself, but in You;
Not faith in my own abilities,
But faith in Your Power and Wisdom.

Help me faithfully to
Walk past any playing field flooded with the glare of my own self-centeredness,
And walk toward the unknown pathways which You have charted for me — some less visible than candle glow.

In the midst of the unknown
I shall find Your gifts to me;
In the midst of darkness,
I shall find the Light
Of Your Love.

And in the midst of Faith's victory,
I shall find Your abiding Grace.

Dear God, let me live by faith!

O Master, let me walk with thee in lowly paths of service free;
tell me thy secret; help me bear the strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move by some clear, winning word of love;
teach me the wayward feet to stay, and guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me thy patience; still with thee in closer, dearer company, in work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong;

In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way, in peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live.
