LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. O Lord our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name... Thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs.

Isaiah 26:12-14, 19

Welcome, friends, from both far and near.
Let us worship God who is surely here.
Let us pray, sing, share the Word and give;
Then let us joyfully go into God's world to live.

God hath work to do in this world; and to desert it because of its difficulties and entanglements, is to cast off his authority. It is not enough that we be just, that we be righteous, and walk with God in holiness; but we must also serve our generation, as David did before he fell asleep. God hath a work to do; and not to help him is to oppose him.

-John Owen

Every generation stands on the shoulders of the generation that came before. Jealously guard the values and principles of our heritage; they did not come easy.

-Ronald Reagan

We do not very often come across opportunities for exercising strength, magnanimity, or magnificence; but gentleness, temperance, modesty and humility are graces which ought to color everything we do. There may be virtues of a more exalted mold, but ... these are the most continually called for in daily life.

-François de Sales

What I want is, not to possess a faith, but to have a faith that shall possess me.

-Charles Kingsley
