Notes: Sermon Text Subject Spiritual "To Do List" (things God has shown me today)

Lord, may my life never become, To others' ears a constant hum; Of grinding wheels and creaking gears, That just continues through the years.

But rather let me work in such a way,
That You get glory every day.
And help me to always see the beauty
Of a faithfully fulfilled day.

-Hope Barnes

Some might believe that certain jobs — pastor, missionary, bishop — are holier than others. But in his classic book The Practice of the Presence of God, Brother Lawrence, a 17th-century Carmelite monk, tells of performing even the most common, tedious tasks as holy service to God: "I turn the cake that is frying on the pan for love of [God]," he wrote. "It is enough for me to pick up but a straw from the ground for the love of God."

No matter your field of work, remember that any task done in God's name and to his glory is holy.

On this Sunday before Labor Day, we're glad to welcome each worshiper. May our work always be done to honor the Lord.

Call To Worship

Sing aloud to God, our strength!

We'll shout for joy to the God of all creation.

For our God yearns to feed all people,

Our God wants to satisfy our hunger.

So we gather to listen, to hear the voice of the One who saves.

Together, we open our ears and offer our hearts in worship.

—From Psalm 81

Announcements

- The second offering this morning is for the Building Maintenance Fund.
