"Yes, my soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him. Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will not be shaken." (Psalm 62:5-6) —Franklin Graham

That is the way to be immovable in the midst of troubles, as a rock amidst the waves.

When God is in the midst of a kingdom or city, He makes it firm as Mount Sion, that cannot be removed.

When He is in the midst of a soul, though calamities throng about it on all hands, and roar like the billows of the sea, yet there is a constant calm within, such a peace as the world can neither give nor take away.

What is it but want [lack] of lodging God in the soul, and that in His stead the world is in men's hearts, that makes them shake like leaves at every blast of danger? —R. Leighton

Let's try to exceed last year's number of shoeboxes! Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts. Psalm 125:4

Call To Worship

Do good, O Lord, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever. The rich and poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all.

Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Let us worship the God our Rock, who gives good to us. —From Psalm 22:2,9; Psalm 125:2, 4; James 2:5

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity, and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou does command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. —BCP
