Pastor's Pulpit:

LESSONS FROM A TRAVELING CARNIVAL

September brings with it such a collection of good things. The weather is cool but not yet cold. The leaves are turning yet not yet fallen. Christmas is looming yet not yet on the forefront of our minds and hearts.

What I have noticed in many places is that September also brings traveling carnivals. These little, somewhat bizarre, bands of people bring with them the wares of their trade as they move from town-to-town, selling the commodity of distraction. They are pretty much friendly gypsies who provide a respite from the humdrum of life and, like the summers in South Dakota, their stay is brief and they are gone before you know it.

But think with me a minute about this traveling show. You always have the crowds who come. People who are curious; people who want to experience something new; bored people; and fun-seeking people. These curious people are looking for .. well they just really don't know, but they enjoy being with fellow curiosity seekers.

Then there are the "carnies." These include the "barkers" ... who will basically say anything to get people to put down a few dollars (along with their common sense) to see some side show that promises amazement and entertainment. Barkers will also "dog" you to toss a few rings or throw a few balls. Then there are the carnival clowns ... crafty, cunning, trying to make people laugh, but for the most part, just creepy. I think they're creepy because they are just not real, not right, seemingly absorbed in their role and pretty much oblivious to what people really think about them. Ah yes, pretty much a "unique" group.

Then of course you have the rides: rotating tea cups; ferris wheels; merry-go-rounds, roller coasters, and lots of others. All are intended to provide a momentary thrill.

But let's sit back and just for a few minutes compare carnival life with real life. Everyone is looking for something. People by and large are curious, bored, fun-seeking and love being with others of like mind. People don't mind trying something new. This is pretty much how God uses His people and His places (Church) to draw people to Himself. We are not to be a carnival, but we're also not to be a cemetery.

Think about the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. All these things describe a life marked by security, happiness, purpose and well ... life! Jesus said I came that you might have life and have it ABUNDANTLY! Therefore, coming to His place (Church) should be a joy, not just a duty. Why go to church if you can't enjoy it? If God's people aren't excited and eager to go to church why in the world would anyone else, especially people that we know and know us, ever darken the door? Even in a crowd at a traveling carnival, people like being with fellow curiosity seekers and isn't that what we're doing at church services ... seeking God?

If others saw that our attitude was truly that we GET to come to church instead of we HAVE to go to church, they would be wondering what it is all about ... and maybe I'll go see for myself. And even though God is actually "dog" spelled backwards, we certainly don't need preachers acting like barkers "selling" the Gospel. People simply need to hear the truth of God's Word and let Him work in them more than we try to work on them. And of course on top of all this, we need church members who are honest and earnest and sincere. That's what I love about our congregation! All of you are just a joy to be around. We certainly don't need church clowns; folks who aren't real or right, trying to be something they are not, and absorbed with the role of playing a Christian instead of just being the best Christian they can be. Ah yes, lessons from the carnival.

But more than that, I really want to compare the "rides" with our own realities. If you could pick one ride that would or could best describe the life of a Christian what would it be? Would it be the Ferris Wheel? Slow but steady? Ups and downs are just part of the ride. Nothing really exciting except the view? How about the Merry-Go-Round? Tedious and pretty tame. Full of ups and downs but never really moving forward ... just a life going in circles. Or, and here is my choice, a Roller Coaster? Fast, thrilling. The ups and downs are just part of the built in thrill of the ride. How incredibly fast the ride goes. Just like life, the ride seems to have just started and lo and behold, we can sense that the ride is almost over. But I was so busy hanging on and having fun I didn't realize just how fast time really goes.

That's my kind of life. Lots of ups and downs, but it's all part of the journey. Lots of curves and unexpected turns, but early on I realized that all roller coaster rides have seats that fit two people. So it's not just my ride that I've considered, it's the Person who I have asked to ride with me. And believe you me, that has made all the difference in the world. And He has.

Jesus has been there all along. He has been my riding companion through the ups and curves and turns and downs. And, and even though the ride has been scary at times, His place beside me was and is secure. Funny thing though ... I've often wondered if it's really Jesus just riding with me or is it He chose me to ride with Him. September, cool days, leaves changing, Christmas coming, lessons from the traveling carnival.

Blessings,
Pastor David

D2D Organizational Meeting
Sunday, September 4, 2022
11:15 am—12 Noon
In the Fireside Room

Course Description:

"Disciple to Disciple" is a 33-week course (3x11 weekly classes) spread throughout a year, that has always been on my heart as more than a few Christians feel they:

- ◆ Have not had the opportunity to really develop the primary and solid Christian habits that can be life changing and fruitful for the Kingdom of God;
- ◆ Don't really know how to share with someone about how Jesus Christ became real to them;
- ◆ Don't know what to say when talking to someone about Christ and the offer of salvation;
- ◆ Are feeling guilty because of all the above! and
- ◆ Have always wanted to grow deeper in their own faith but haven't found the means, material or mentor(s) that could guide them through the process.

More detailed information will be provided at this meeting, or you can go to the church website and click on the "D2D" button on the bottom of the Home page.

Dear Friends,

I am happy to report about the clinic you built and named after me in Haiti!

Our (United Churches) Clinic is free to see the Doctor for: high blood pressure medicines, diabetes medicines, birth control project, nutrition for babies, and of course, non-profit. They do have to pay for the building. It costs about $640 a month to pay for the bills. Right now they are behind. They have a Doctor, nurse, lab, secretary and cleaner.

For those of you who have indicated an interest in supporting Dr. William, we now have a way to send money directly to Dr. William, to use at his discretion.

The Haitian government has provided an ambulance to Anse-à-Galets (name of village where the clinic is located). Now they use the pick up we sent to them as a mobile clinic. They do a mobile clinic 2 to 3 times a month.

I will be keeping you updated every month now. I am the "point person" for the Clinic and Dr. William. This is totally separate from La Gonave.

If you have any questions, please call me at 605-890-0108 (leave a message or send me a text).

Blessings,
Annie Zwetzig
