VALENTINE LOOK OUT

Valentine's Day is a designated time to express your love to those that bring meaning into your life. Here is a story that might help you to remember:

A man who lived in a block of apartments thought it was raining and put his head out the window to check. As he did so a glass eye fell into his hand.
He looked up to see where it came from in time to see a young woman looking down.
"Is this yours?" he asked.
She said, "Yes, could you bring it up?" and the man agreed.
On arrival she was profuse in her thanks and offered the man a cold drink of Ice Tea. As she was very attractive he agreed. Shortly afterwards she said, "I'm about to have dinner. There's plenty; would you like to join me?"
He readily accepted her offer and both enjoyed a lovely meal. As the evening was drawing to a close, she leaned over and gave him a kiss. The man hesitated then said, "Do you act like this with every man you meet?"
"No," she replied, "Only those who catch my eye."
He asked, "Can I see you again?"
And she said, "I'll keep an eye out for you . . ."

May I challenge you this Valentine and every day to "to keep an eye out" for every opportunity to express your love and appreciation to and for others, who knows someone will be keeping an eye out for you.
