

The JOURNEY — Walking Daily with Jesus

Pastor's Corner,

"I lift my eyes up to the hills. From where does my help come?" Psalm 121:1

As some of you may know, Psalm 121 is one of my favorite scriptures. The words are powerful when we're in distress. They provide hope and promise in times of trouble.

In ancient Israel, the soldiers would keep their eyes on the hills during a battle. They did this knowing that, when the time was right, warriors mounted on war horses would swoop down from the hills to bring them a much-needed boost of strength to win the fight.

In Jerusalem, the people would look up to the hills, to the temple. The position of the temple over the city was a constant reminder that the people of Israel were the chosen people of God. They would trek up the hill to offer sacrifices or to celebrate one of the festivals. As I have found in hiking in the mountains, when one labors to climb the mountain, the eyes often look up, seeking the final goal and the end of the labor. So, too, when climbing to the temple, the people would often look up to see the place where they would come to worship the Lord.

In this time of Lent, and with the rapid approach of Easter, we lift our eyes to the hills as well. We look for Jesus, who came riding down the hill for us. He came riding down from the hills, not on a warhorse, but on a lowly donkey. He comes to us as the Son of God, who chose to become incarnate as one of us.

We then look to the hills, where we see His cross. The cross which Jesus willingly took as his own in order that He would rescue us from the power of sin and death. And we now rejoice as we look to the cross, because what was once an instrument of death, stands empty, the tomb in which they laid Jesus is empty as well. We don't look for Him there, because, as the angels announce: "He is not here, His has risen, just as he said." (Matthew 28:6)

We now keep our eyes lifted to see our goal, the triumphant return of our Savior, Jesus Christ, to call us home. There, "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore." (Rev. 21:4)

Have a joyous and blessed Easter. "Christ is risen; he has risen indeed!"

From the Council President:

With Easter Week coming up soon, I prepared by reading The Man on the Middle Cross- A 7-Day Easter Reading Plan by Pastor Alister Begg.

Pastor Begg is the senior pastor of Cleveland's Parkside Church. He is the voice behind the Christian preaching and teaching ministry, Truth For Life, which broadcasts his sermons daily to more than 1,800 radio stations across North America. He is also the author of several books.

I felt led to share the devotional introduction by Pastor Begg with you. This introduction was both humorous, thought-provoking, and reminded me of the proper response of how I was saved.

Here are Pastor Begg's words: Jesus was crucified between two convicted criminals and those criminals both heard the words of Christ, yet they responded very differently. The first dying man regarded the cross as a contradiction. He concluded that because Jesus was on the cross, He was no Savior. So, he ridiculed the man on the middle cross: "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" (Luke 23:39). But the second man saw the cross as confirmation. He recognized that because Jesus was on the cross, He must be the Savior.

"Without preaching the cross all day and every day, we will very, very quickly revert to faith plus works as the grounds of our salvation. If you were to die tonight and you were getting entry into heaven, what would you say? If I would answer or you would answer in the first person, we have gone wrong. Because I ..., because I believed, because I have faith, because I.... Loved Ones, the only proper answer is in the third person. Because He, because He...

Think about the thief on the cross. I can't wait to find this fellow in Heaven to ask him, "how did this shake out for you? Because you were cussing the guy (Jesus) out with your friend (the other thief). You've never been to a Bible Study; you've never been baptized. You didn't know anything about church membership. Yet you made it! How did you make it?"

That's what the angel in Heaven must have said. You know, "What are you doing here?" "The thief said, "I don't know" The angel said, "Excuse me I'll get my supervising angel." The Supervising Angel said, "We've just got a couple of questions for you. First of all, are you clear on the doctrine of justification?" The thief said, "I've never heard of it in my life." The supervising angel continued "What about the doctrine of scripture?" The thief just had a puzzled look on his face. The angel in frustration asked, "on what basis are you here?" "The thief answered, "the man on the middle cross said I could come."

Now, that is the only answer. And if I don't preach the gospel all day and everyday then I will find myself beginning to trust myself, trust my experiences which is part of my fallenness as a man.

If I take my eyes off the cross, I can only give lip service to its efficacy, while at the same time living as if my salvation depends on me. And as soon as you are there, it will lead you to either abject despair or a horrible kind of arrogance, and it is only the cross of Christ that deals with both.

With the dreadful depths of despair and the pretentious arrogance of man that says you know, "I can figure this out" and I'm doing wonderfully well. No, because the sinless savior died, and my sinful soul is counted free. For God the Just is satisfied to look upon Him and pardon me. That's why Luther said, most of your Christian life is outside of you. In this sense: we know that we're not saved by good works. We're not saved as a result of our professions, but we're saved as a result of what Christ has achieved."

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—not by works, so that no one can boast." Ephesians 2: 8-9

As I'm reminded of the joy of the resurrection of Christ on Easter, I also am reminded of the physical and emotional pain, rejection, and loneliness that Christ went through for us on Good Friday. I'm also reminded of those in our congregation and communities that are experiencing these same things. They are the mission field of this church. Please share the incomparable love and grace of Christ with them.

Happy and Blessed Easter.
Jim McGraw

From Your Associate Pastor

After a long, cold winter, we can now enjoy the refreshment of Spring! In the beauty of this transformation, let us ponder what the transforming power that the resurrection of our Lord and Savior means for us today. Just as the freshness of Spring brings brand new blades of grass, leaves, and precious new life all around us, the resurrection of our Lord Jesus is a refreshing message to our lost and broken world. Jesus became a living sacrifice that our lives can be washed, sanctified, cleansed, transformed and free from guilt and shame.

The resurrection of Jesus from the dead is a powerful witness of the amazing love and transformation that our Heavenly Father has brought in sending His Son to take all our sins in His body on the cross. Because of this we have become a New Creation in Christ Jesus! 2 Corinthians 5:17

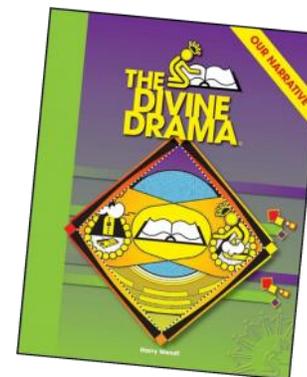

Just as the sweet spring rain washes away the dirt and the grime of winter, the resurrection brings much joy in knowing that our sins have been washed away, and that we're cleansed, and redeemed by the blood of the Lamb! This transformation is like the metamorphosis process that changes a caterpillar into a butterfly! In Christ, we have this new life, as we are justified by faith in what He has done for us on the cross! Romans 5:1-11

As we look to God's Word to find out what this resurrection power of God has done and continues to do in our life, we find over 8,000 promises waiting for us to discover and embrace the amazing refreshment and abundant life that they bring. Just as Spring continually brings new life all around us, God's new life of forgiveness and truth brings rivers of living water that cleanses our soul, and satisfies our spiritual thirst with His, hope, assurance, refreshment, and direction. John 7:38; 2 Timothy 3:16

Be blessed, be refreshed!
HAPPY RESURRECTION DAY!

Upcoming 2025 Stewardship Activities

By now many in our congregation are aware of the upcoming needs for Trinity Lutheran Church to replace the roof over a major portion of our church.

We have seen the results of roof leaks on the ceilings in several areas, and the shingle deterioration is noticeable to a person walking outside.

Estimates and planning are underway now by our operations team.

This will be a major undertaking for our congregation, and we expect the work will take place after several years of fund raising.

Starting this spring we will start informational and fundraising activities.

Please think about how you can help in this important effort.

Thank you
Mike Rubin - Stewardship

Stephen Ministry

Trinity Lutheran Church (TLC) in Birchwood has recently begun Stephen Ministry, a new and exciting ministry that will allow it to reach out to more people with one-to-one Christian care. Through Stephen Ministry, a team of TLC's members, known as Stephen Ministers, has been equipped to provide quality Christian care to people facing a variety of life difficulties. Some of the situations in which Stephen Ministers provide care include the loss of a loved one, divorce, unemployment, medical crisis, and other life crises.

On Sunday April 27, TLC will be commissioning four members as Stephen Ministers and four Stephen Ministers Leaders. These caregivers will serve under the leadership of Pastor Dan Tabor and the Stephen Leaders at TLC. We are all excited about the way Stephen Ministers will expand the caring ministry. They will help our pastoral staff provide the quality of ongoing care people need for the duration of their crisis. For example, in a grief situation, an individual often receives a great amount of care in the immediate weeks after their loved one dies but as time goes on, they may not get the care they need. With Stephen Ministry a grieving person will receive quality care for as long as needed.

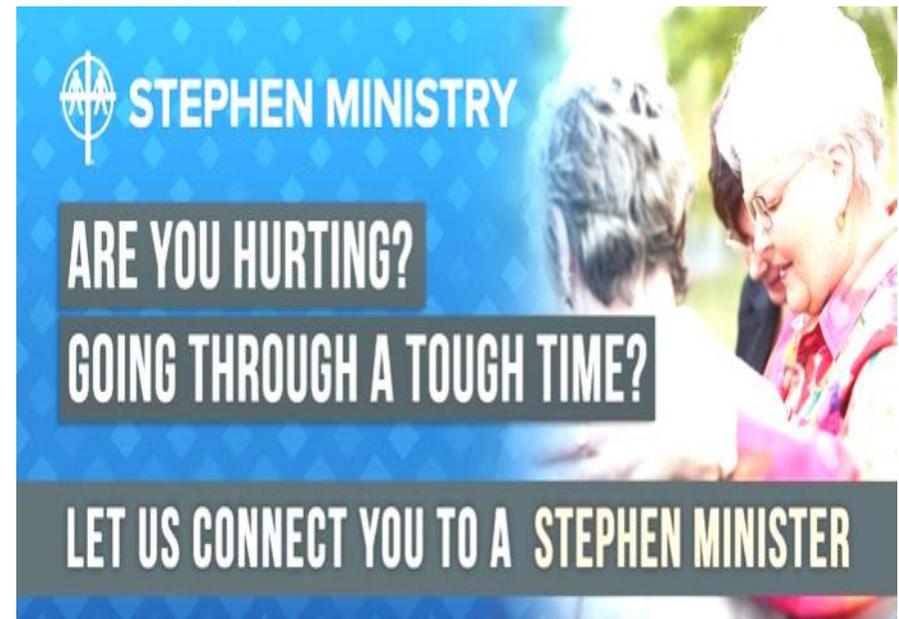

Before commissioning, TLC's Stephen Ministers received in-depth training in Christian caregiving skills, covering topics such as active listening, distinctively Christian care, feelings, confidentiality, and crisis theory, as well as ministering to people in specific situations such as divorce, grief, and medical crises. After they begin providing care, Stephen Ministers continue to meet twice a month with their Stephen Leaders for continuing education and supervision as they strive to offer the highest-quality Christian caregiving.

A major emphasis of Stephen Minister training and supervision is on confidentiality. Stephen Ministry is a confidential ministry; those receiving care can be sure that their identity and what they talk about in the caring relationship will remain private.

The people at TLC are excited about this new dimension of their ministry. TLC expects their Stephen Ministry to be a source of warmth, care, and blessing for many years to come, enabling the entire congregation to grow as a nurturing community where people are cherished and cared for and their needs taken seriously, all in the name of Jesus Christ.

If you are interested or have questions about Stephen Ministry at TLC, please contact Jim McGraw at (612) 859-3046. If you know someone who needs care and support, you can call Pastor Dan Tabor at (715) 416-4966 or Di Hubbard at (941) 893-0311.
